The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

WILLIAM

Given at Head Quarters in Boſton, Oct.

By his Excellency WILLIAM HOWE

WHEREAS it is become the indiſpenſ
every loyal and faithful citizen, to co in his power for the preſervation of order a vernment within the town of Boſton. I do commend, that the inhabitants do immediate themſelves, to be formed into companies un

on us, "to do every thing in our power, to support order and good government, as well as to contribute our aid to the internal ſecurity of the town;"—now take this opportunity to profeſs our firm allegiance to his Majeſty, and entire obedience to his government and laws. From a diſpoſition to continue quiet and obedient ſubjects, we have generally neglected the uſe of arms, while thoſe of different characters and ſentiments, have been diligently endeavouring to improve themſelves in that art. Upon theſe principles, we have remained in, or fled to, this town; neither do we wiſh or deſign to leave it.

We conſider it as our ſtrongeſt duty to contribute our aid in promoting the peace, order, and ſecurity of the town, and are willing to be employed to theſe good purpoſes, in the ways and means ſuited to our capacities. To that end, we cheerfully accept the offers of his Excellency, and now voluntarily aſſociate for the purpoſes mentioned in his Proclamation, hereby promiſing, That ſuch of us as he ſhall think proper, or able to perform the duties therein required, will be formed into companies, as therein mentioned; and will to the utmoſt of our power faithfully perform thoſe ſervices, and punctually diſcharge the truſt repoſed in us. And that ſuch as are not able to go through thoſe duties, will freely contribute our proportions, according to our abilities to raiſe a ſum of money for promoting this ſalutary purpoſe, to be applied to the uſe of thoſe who are, in ſuch manner, as the General, or thoſe he may appoint, may think proper.
